Commuter Benefits

IRS Plan Year Contribution limits	2027 Parking Limits: Anticipated to be $350.00 per month 2027 Transit Limits: Anticipated to be $350.00 per month
Claim deadline	Funds roll over month to month and year to year while you are employed and remain eligible for the plan, and they are available for future qualified transit or parking expenses (within the monthly limits). However, you have 180 days from the date a parking expense is incurred to submit a claim for reimbursement.
“Use it or lose it” rule apply?	No, the funds roll over month after month and year after year
Additional information	You can enroll in the plan, terminate enrollment and increase or decrease your election amount effective for the first of any month
What expenses are eligible?	See www.irs.gov, Section 132f.
Can I use my Voya debit card?	Parking: Yes. If the card isn’t used, you can submit for reimbursement through your secure online account, the Voya mobile app or sending in our paper claim form via fax, email or mail. You have 180 days from the date a parking expense was incurred to submit a claim for reimbursement. Transit: The card must be used. Using your own funds and submitting for reimbursement is not permitted for Transit Accounts per federal regulations

Can I track my balance online?	Yes at www.voya.com