Frequently Asked Questions

Are my spouse and dependent children eligible for coverage?

No, your employer's plan does not provide for coverage on your spouse or children.

Does the coverage decrease as I get older?

Yes, the age reductions are shown in the "Benefit Plan & Features" section. The coverage will reduce on the next Policyholder anniversary date following your attainment of the ages shown. The percentages referenced are what the coverage reduces to and are all based on the original amount of coverage. For example, if you are covered for $50,000 and the coverage reduces to 65% at age 65, your coverage will reduce to $32,500 on the policy anniversary following your 65th birthday.

Is the accidental death benefit in addition to the life benefit?

Yes, if the insured dies as a result of a covered accident, the beneficiary will receive both the life and accidental death benefits.

How do I port or convert my coverage?

Contact your employer's HR department for the applicable portability and/or conversion forms. You can also call Equitable customer service at (866)274-9887 or access the forms at <https://equitable.com/employee-benefits/customer-service/forms>

How much does the portability coverage cost?

The rate for portability coverage is the same as the rate under your employer's plan.

How do I name a beneficiary?

Your employer will provide you with a form that will allow you to name primary and contingent beneficiaries.

Can I change my beneficiary?

Yes, you just need to complete a new beneficiary form and be sure to provide a copy to your employer.

What happens if I die and didn't name a beneficiary?

The insurance proceeds may be paid out to a specific family member or your estate, check your insurance certificate for the language applicable to your plan.
