

HITRUST-certified employee messaging for employers and consultants

Flimp Connect is HITRUST certified and HIPAA compliant, ensuring the highest standards of data security, privacy, and regulatory protection. With HITRUST certification, securing IT and legal approvals is a breeze. Plus, unlike many platforms, Flimp Connect is designed for employers to communicate with their employees—not for mass marketing—ensuring exceptional deliverability.

With our state-of-the-art platform, you can securely deliver messages by text (SMS and MMS), email, and two-way messaging.

License our platform to manage your own messaging or let us do the heavy lifting for you with our managed texting services.
