

Childcare services

Finding child care is easier thanks to daily life assistance.

For many parents, finding child care can be a stressful process. You want the best for your child. But you have to think about costs, waiting list and other factors. We're here to help.

Call a worklife specialist for a specific discussion of your childcare needs, including:

- When you need coverage
- What location you prefer
- Your financial limits
- Type of care you need/prefer
- Research to find care in your area that fits your needs
- Referrals to qualified caregivers
- Guidebooks, tip sheets and other helpful information related to your request

Visit your member website for:

- A convenient childcare search tool so you can do your own search anytime, anywhere
- Articles, videos and more on topics such as parenting, education and child development

Worklife specialists can help you with referrals to:

- Before- and after-school care
- Back-up care
- Preschools and nurseries
- Babysitters
- In-home providers
- Family care providers
- Childcare centers
- Summer camps
- Special needs care
- Adoption resources
- Childcare financial assistance programs

Find help with your childcare search. We're here for you 24/7.

For legal disclaimers, visit rfl.com/Disclaimers.