

Explain complex benefits topics to employees with video

Our ever-expanding animated HR Benefits Video Library includes 90+ titles that can be used to educate employees about their benefits and health insurance in easy-to-understand language.

It's particularly helpful for employers with bilingual or younger workforces and those who want to offer videos for a variety of issues like supporting mental health, optimizing FSAs and HSAs, explaining HDHPs, controlling healthcare expenses, and more.

These pre-produced videos are available in English and Spanish and the annual unlimited-use license includes hosting, embedding and reporting.
